Dazzling Displays on Pennsylvania Day at the Races

by Emily Shields

Afleet Tizzy

Pennsylvania-Breds put on a dazzling display during the five stakes races on the annual Pennsylvania Day at the Races event at Parx Aug. 3. The 12-race card with purses totaling $1 million was made up entirely of contests exclusive to horses bred in the Keystone State. The runners didn't disappoint, displaying their athleticism and grace in spades.

Five-year-old mare Afleet Tizzy won the $107,800 Dr. Teresa Garofalo Memorial Stakes at six furlongs on the dirt, scoring by a length under Angel Rodriguez in 1:10.52.

Someday Jones

It was the sixth lifetime win but first stakes victory for the daughter of Tizway out of the unraced Successful Appeal mare Nec Metu. John Tyler Servis trains for Marvin Delfiner and George Krall.

The trainer's father, John Servis, won a different stakes race on the card, the $119,800 Roanoke Stakes with Someday Jones. The six-year-old son of Kentucky Derby (G1) and Preakness Stakes (G1) hero Smarty Jones was fourth in last year's Roanoke, but improved to score by 6 ¼ lengths in the 1 1/16-mile main track event.

It was the ninth win in 22 lifetime starts for Someday Jones, who last year took the Robellino Stakes at Penn National in August. His dam, the Concern mare Last Toots, was a stakes-placed winner who has produced six winners from six to race, including Neshaminy. Parx has a $100,000 turf sprint slated for Sept. 2 called the Neshaminy Stakes, which Servis has penciled in for Someday Jones depending on the track condition and weather.

"He's great, he's like a pony," Servis said of Someday Jones after the race. "It's hard to believe he's a full horse because he's so laid back. He's got a ton of class and is so easy to deal with, easy to gallop. He just goes out and does his thing. There's never been an issue with this horse with his attitude, he's great in that regard."

Someday Jones is owned by Main Line Racing Stable and Alexandria Stable. He was bred by Patricia Chapman, who also campaigned the horse's famous sire, Smarty Jones. "I was so excited about this race and so glad I was there to see it and congratulate his owners," Chapman said. "They very graciously let me shove my way into the winner's circle with them and even let me stand between them. I'm so proud of this son of Smarty Jones and pleased he is trained by 'Team Servis!'" Servis also trained Smarty Jones, who returned from Kentucky to stand at stud in Pennsylvania this year.

The $100,000 Mrs. Penny Stakes over 1 1/16 miles on the grass went to Imply, winning her third consecutive stakes race. The daughter of E Dubai—Allude, by Orientate is trained by T. Bernard Houghton for Larry Karp's Barlar LLC.

"I've been at this for 35 years, and while she's not American Pharoah or Justify, she's right up there for me for sure," Karp said. "This is by far the best horse I've ever bred."

Under jockey Julio Hernandez, Imply settled fourth early in a nine-horse field. She took the lead heading into the stretch and kicked clear, scoring by two lengths over Pink Elephant and Shemakesmehappy. The final time was 1:48.47.

With 12 wins in 28 starts and 21 top three finishes for earnings of $769,228, Imply has proven herself one of the classiest horses in Pennsylvania. "She came out of the race great; everything is good," said trainer Houghton. "I honestly think the race was fairly easy for her, she didn't have to stress or run too much. She's been an absolute pleasure."

Hollywood Talent took the $100,000 Marshall Jenney Handicap sprinting five furlongs on the grass. He was a 12-1 shot, topping a rich trifecta with 38-1 shot Amblin Man a nose back second and 11-1 shot Smooth B third while favored Smokin Nitro finished fifth. The final time was :59.79.

Ten Strike Racing owns Hollywood Talent, an 8-year-old gelded son of Talent Search—Intrinsic Value, by Johannesburg. The dam was a $115,000 yearling in 2006; she now has four winners from four to race.

Perhaps the most thrilling finish of the day came in the $100,000 Banjo Picker Sprint, which saw a three-horse finish and full brothers finishing first and second, just a neck apart.

Five-year-old Midtowncharlybrown outlasted 4-year-old stablemate Midnightcharly in the 6-furlong, main track contest. The coupled entry was favored, with second wagering choice and defending champion The Man finishing a head back third. The race went in 1:10.64, with Roberto Rosado riding the winner. Ed Coletti Jr. trains both Godric LLC-bred sons of Uptowncharlybrown out of the Speightstown mare Torchwood. Her 3-year-old daughter Charly's Charm, another full sibling, is 2-for-6 this year.

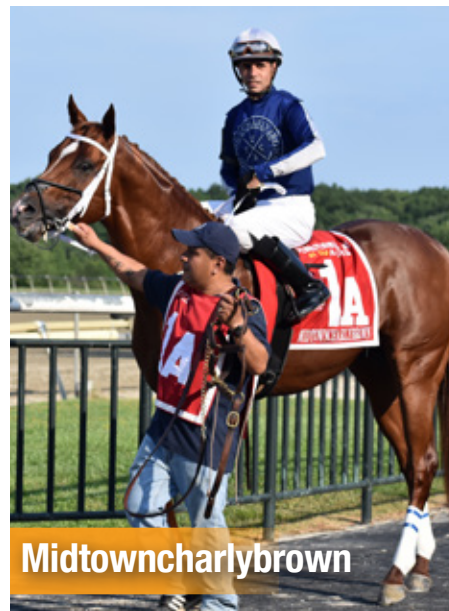

"I don't want to sound overly confident, but honestly, it was the result I expected," said Bob Hutt, owner of the Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC. "Midnightcharly stumbled at the start; if not for that he probably would have been the winner. We call them the Smash Brothers, Mr. Inside and Mr. Outside. It's a nice recipe, we are really blessed."

Hutt went on to note that, "I don't think all of America knows what's going on." He went on to explain about Uptowncharlybrown's 72 percent winners, 12 percent stakes winners from starters, and his extraordinary position on the stallion lists via his Average Earnings Index and Comparable Index. "The stallions ahead of him have 10-times the runners," Hutt said.

Uptowncharlybrown could be standing in Kentucky, but Hutt is a believer in the Pennsylvania-Bred program. "The breeders awards are off the Richter scale."

Pennsylvania's Day at the Races was first launched in 2000, but did not reach $1 million in purses until 2018. It is now one of the most anticipated events on the Pennsylvania racing calendar. ■

Match Series Shifts To Parx On Labor Day As Series Heats Up

The fourth leg of the 2019 MATCH Series will be held at Parx on Labor Day, Sept. 2, and all of the leading PA-Bred points leaders are nominated.

The breeder of the top points-earning PA-Bred colt/gelding and filly/mare will split a $10,000 bonus at the end of the series.

The Roamin Rachel (Filly and Mare Sprint-Dirt Division) is one of four $100,000 MATCH Series stakes on the holiday program. The others are the Bensalem Stakes (3-Year-Olds and Up Sprint-Dirt Division), Neshaminy (3-Year-Olds and Up Sprint-Turf Division) and Sal DeBunda PTHA President's Cup (Filly and Mare Long-Turf Division).

The Roamin Rachel has 20 nominations, including division leader Ms Locust Point, with 24 points, and 2W Racing's PA-Bred leader Bronx Beauty, who defeated Ms Locust Point at Penn National and Delaware, with 20 points.

PA-Bred Zipper's Hero, currently with five points, is also nominated.

The dirt sprint division remains wide open with Uptowncharlybrown Stud and Godric LLC's PA-Bred Midtowncharlybrown, winner of the Chocolatetown Sprint at Hollywood Casino at Penn National, ranking second with 10 points. His full brother Midnightcharly currently has five points.

Among the 24 Neshaminy nominees are Waldorf Racing Stables' PA-Bred Fielder, with one point, but he is also nominated to the Grade 3 Turf Monster Stakes at 5 furlongs on the program.

In order to qualify for the $350,000 in MATCH bonus money, runners must have competed in at least three of the five races in their division. Richard Woll, who owns Bronx Beauty, said he intends to stick with the series; the filly trained by Anthony Margotta Jr. is based at Monmouth Park, which will host the final series leg Sept. 28.

Uptowncharlybrown Stud's Bob Hutt said the strangles situation led trainer Eddie Coletti Jr. to pass at Delaware Park with Midtowncharlybrown and Midnightcharly. Hutt said the "game plan" as of now is to race the brothers by Uptowncharlybrown in the remaining MATCH events.

A Letter From the Executive Secretary

Our second annual Million Dollar PA Day at the Races was a huge success! More than 450 breeders and their guests had a great time, as did Marty Shaw from Top Notch Racing who walked away, or should I say drove away, in a brand-new John Deere Gator donated by the NTRA. The fields were full and we were finally on the turf for the first time in three or four years.

Breeding season is upon us! As a reminder, Broodmare Domicile forms will be due by Dec. 1. For the foal crop of 2020, broodmares must be in the state by Dec. 1, or within 14 days of a public sale. Mares bred to registered PA-Sires are up again this year, according to our preliminary count, and continuing that trend will move us to an increase in registered foals, which is our priority. We ask that you submit all broodmare domicile forms online. You can access the online submission at www.pabred.com/forms. If you cannot submit online, please call our office to make other arrangements. Please do not use an old form as they are changing this year.

Our annual Stallion Directory will be published in December. To our stallion owners, breeding farms and domicile farms, you will be receiving the forms in the mail in the next week or two. Please note that all information and directory pages will be due back in our office by Oct. 18, 2019.

Online registration is coming soon! We are currently developing an online registration system where you will be able to register your foals, renew your membership, as well as access information on prior foals and breeder awards. Keep an eye out for further announcements on a launch date!

BLACKSTONE FARM YEARLINGS ARE A HIT AT SARATOGA

TAYLOR GILKEY/TAYLOR MADE SALES

Blackstone Farm sent three Pennsylvania-bred fillies to the historic Saratoga Sale of select yearlings Aug. 5-6 at the Humphrey S. Finney sales pavilion in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. They averaged of $330,000.

The Blackstone fillies were the only Pennsylvania-breds offered at the sale, which was held for the 99th time this year. Selling for $450,000 to Mike Ryan was a Medaglia d'Oro half-sister (above) to multiple graded stakes-winning millionaire Tom's Ready and stakes-placed runners Consulado and Wrong Color. Out of the Broad Brush mare Goodbye Stranger, the dark bay was consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency.

A bay daughter of Hard Spun—Wembley, by Bernardini, sold for $360,000 to Coffee Pot Stables. Offered through the South Point Sales Agency consignment, she is the first foal for her dam, who was purchased by Blackstone for $65,000 with the filly in utero at the 2017 Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale. The filly's second dam is Grade 1 winner Game Face.

Consigned by Warrendale Sales was the youngest offered, a chestnut daughter of Distorted Humor foaled in April. Purchased by Quarter Pole Enterprises for $180,000, the filly is the third yearling out of the Elusive Quality mare Amber Grace to bring six figures from four offered. Second dam Balistroika also produced European champion Russian Rhythm and group winner Perfectperformance, with leading sire Cape Cross, classic winner Alydaress and champions Shadayid and Park Appeal (Ire) also found in the family.

The fillies were foaled at the Pine Grove, Pa.-based farm, which has been owned and operated by Douglas Black, Christian Black and Mark Weissman since 2006. The majority of the 30-plus annual foal crop are offered at public auction. Earlier in the year, Blackstone sold three yearlings at the Fasig-Tipton July sale. They have more than 20 yearlings headed to the fall sales in Kentucky—Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton—as well as to the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic starting Sept. 30.

Pennsylvania Broodmare Domicile Requirements & Registration Eligibility for 2020 Foals

Important Information for the 2020 Breeding Season:

We ask that all Broodmare Domicile forms be completed online at www.pabred.com/forms.

If you cannot submit online, please call our office to make other arrangements.
Please do not use an old form as they are changing this year.

Please note the following broodmare domicile requirements for the 2020 crop of foals. Mares bred to registered PA-Sires are up again this year, according to our preliminary count, and continuing that trend will move us to an increase in registered foals, which is our priority.

- The dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back will fall under this category.
- The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state.
- The dam of the foal arrived after DECEMBER 1 of the year of conception, foaled in Pennsylvania and was bred back to a registered PA stallion standing in Pennsylvania and the dam of the foal resided SIXTY (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred.

PA-Bred Stakes Recaps: Presque Isle Downs

The first 2-year-old stakes of the year for PA-Breds will be run at Presque Isle Downs. The races are named for two Pennsylvania industry leaders—prominent breeder/owner Adele Paxson (Mrs. Henry D. Paxson) and former longtime PHBA executive director Mark McDermott.

Paxson, the Eclipse Award leading breeder of 1980 whose Elm Grove Stable bred the likes of Eclipse Award-winning co-champion Candy Eclair, and Grade 1 Delaware Handicap winner Heavenly Ade, operated Elm Grove Stable with her husband. She died at age 87 in December 2000.

McDermott had been executive director of the PHBA for 35 years, from nearly its inception until retiring in June 2011. His tenure was the longest of any executive in a Thoroughbred breeders' organization in the United States.

With the first eight months of the year in the books, Barlar LLC's Imply led all runners with three PA-Bred stakes tallies. Pennsylvania-sired runners accounted for nine of the 15 stakes with Uptowncharlybrown the sire of two stakes winners—full brothers Midnightcharly and Midtowncharlybrown. Former PA stallion E Dubai the sire of Imply. Others with a PA-Bred Fund stakes winners are Partner's Hero (Zipper's Hero), Talent Search (Hollywood Talent), Smarty Jones (Someday Jones) and Messner (Wildcat Combat).

ALL BREEDING FUND STAKES WILL INCLUDE A 25% PA-SIRED BONUS FOR 1ST, 2ND AND 3RD
